My name is _____, and I am a current resident of _____
_____. I am writing to you to bring attention to my concerns about racial disparities and injustice in our community. I believe that it is your duty, as an Elected Official, to create policies that clearly communicate the value of Black lives.

This is where you can share your own experiences or ask for the change that you believe would show the value and importance of Black lives in your community. You can check out the NAACP's talking points for some guidance.

In addition, we must start providing more support towards community efforts to reduce racial injustice. If you would like to discuss the steps you are taking to address these matters, you can contact me at _____. I look forward to speaking with you.
